CorelDRAW CorelDRAW is a drawing program that uses vector shapes. Vector shapes are circles, lines, and other shapes that are defined and placed one on top of the other. Vector shapes are created and edited using commands, such as lines, circles, and arrows. That means that if you have to modify the shape of a circle, you can simply modify the circle's points. In addition, you can modify the stroke of a line, and you can also change the fill of a shape. You can use CorelDRAW to draw your own vector shapes. CorelDRAW also has plenty of other features that are useful for creating vector shapes for graphic arts projects. For more information, visit the following address:

Subclavian steal syndrome presenting as acute coronary syndrome. Coronary artery steal syndrome (CSS) is a rare, but serious complication of an occlusion of the subclavian artery. A 37-year-old man had CSS presenting as acute coronary syndrome. Coronary angiography showed thrombus in the proximal left anterior descending artery. Femoral angiography revealed proximal stenosis of the ipsilateral internal carotid artery and occlusion of the brachiocephalic artery. Subclavian steal syndrome was diagnosed and confirmed after surgical bypass grafting of the left subclavian artery. Although CSS is rare, recognition of this syndrome is crucial to the establishment of a correct diagnosis and management of an acute coronary syndrome.

Watch Live Kenya: “We Will Not Bear Any Harm” As Political Reform Looms By Patricia Okoye [RADIO] Former presidential aide Dr. Narokae Otieno Kariuki has condemned the torching of two SUVs belonging to a presidential candidate as being “un-constitutional and illegal.” Speaking to the Nation last Friday, Dr. Otieno said a two-pronged approach should be adopted by Kenyans to usher in real political transformation and political reforms. He said such reforms would revolve around: the first is to ensure a free and fair political environment; and the second is to ensure a judicial system that is independent and free of political interference. He stressed the need for a political system that would offer every citizen equal opportunity to participate. According to him, this implies that political culture of corruption and nepotism should be eradicated. “This is meant to give all Kenyans equal chance to participate in the political process,” Dr. Otieno said. The former presidential aide said the need to ensure a free and fair political environment should be achieved through: freedom of speech; freedom of the press and the media; elimination of the habit of corruption; and enhancement of accountability and transparency within government. “This would enable the state and citizens alike to hold the executive and legislature accountable for their actions,” he said. “I would need to emphasise here that Kenyans must be allowed to freely express themselves without fear of harassment and hindrance. “In other words, Kenyans are allowed to
